

Popular “Underground Cambridge” Walking Tours Set to Resume June 24

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO (June 9, 2017) – Love history? Then you will want to check out this unique walking tour of Cambridge ..... underground.

As part of the Forgotten Places and Spaces walking tour, Underground Cambridge leads visitors on a unique journey through the city's 20th century past. A costumed interpreter will guide you as you explore this unique destination in our historic downtown. You'll hear the town's history while seeing hidden store fronts and much more along the way.

Tours are offered on the last Saturday of each month in June, July and August. Three tours will be offered 10 am, noon and 3 pm all departing from the Courthouse on Wheeling Ave. Tours are limited to 20 people. Reservations are highly recommended for this particular tour. Demand is high and tours are expected to sell out. Make your reservation by logging onto ATasteofOhio.com/Ohio-Made-Getaways.

Tickets are $20 per person with proceeds benefiting historic preservation efforts in downtown Cambridge. Forgotten Places & Spaces is a cooperative effort of Ohio-Made Getaways and the Historic Preservation Committee.

After your underground tour, plan to stay in downtown Cambridge for Rock the Block from 4-7pm. Enjoy a variety of live music, demonstrating artists, creative hands-on opportunities, food and extended shopping hours, People of all ages are invited to stroll historic Wheeling Avenue (Old National Road/Route 40) to enjoy a lively social atmosphere. Artists set up along the sidewalk demonstrate their craft, as acoustic entertainment fills the air with a delightful soundscape. Whimsically painted chairs mark the entrances to participating merchants! Many offer refreshments and specials.
