

Just Desserts: An Edible Tour through Southeast Ohio

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (August 8, 2019) – One scoop, one lick, or one bite just won't do when you're in the mood for dessert! Cambridge, Ohio is home to several well-known and beloved shops that will satisfy your sweet tooth.

DONUTS & SHAKES

The aroma of freshly baked glazed donuts, sugar cookies, pies and more at Kennedy's Bakery envelope you the moment you walk through the door. "The Original," as the locals affectionately call the bakery, is located at 1025 Wheeling Ave. and has been part of the Cambridge community for nearly 100 years. Located just a few miles from downtown, Kennedy's Cakes and Donuts, boasts 11 showcases of pastries— making it the largest display of baked goods in the state of Ohio. The shop has placed first in the U.S.A. Baking Contest. Did we mention they also have over 1 million milkshake flavors? <http://kennedyscakesanddonuts.com/>

HANDMADE CHOCOLATES

Owned by "Chief Chocoholic" Amanda Cox, Nothing But Chocolate, offers a wide variety of chocolate snacks. The shop is filled with handcrafted chocolates - turtles, peanut clusters, covered pretzel rods, covered Oreos and more. Cox's Buckeye candy was recently voted among the 10 best in Ohio by USA TODAY readers.

HOMEMADE PIES

Theo's Restaurant in downtown Cambridge dishes up its famous mile-high pies with a tasty homemade meringue so high that you may not see the person across the table! Theo's is famous for its towering pies in flavors such as lemon, chocolate, peanut butter, and cherry. <http://www.theosrestaurant.us/>

OLD FASHIONED ICE CREAM

Orr's Drive In is a passage of summer. If you are going to enjoy a peanut butter milkshake, banana split, hand dipped ice cream cone or anything else that will make your mouth water (and add a few pounds), this is the BEST place to find it! Family owned and operated for years (too many to count), the quality of their food is impeccable and made to perfection.
