

Sherlock Holmes returns to Cambridge in “The Case of the Christmas Carbuncle” Nov. 1-2

CAMBRIDGE, OH (September 27, 2019) – The game’s afoot in Cambridge, Ohio, as world-renowned detective, Sherlock Holmes, returns to Cambridge, Ohio on November 1-2 to solve the mystery of “The Case of the Christmas Carbuncle” during the city’s 10-week holiday celebration, Dickens Victorian Village.

Master consulting detective Sherlock Holmes and his friend and associate, Dr. John Watson, will return this November to solve the Case of the Christmas Carbuncle. Sherlock and Watson have returned to Cambridge to hear a lecture given by a researcher of mythological animals. The only problem is the professor is dead. So who is the lecturer? While here, they enlist the help of Holmes’ Baker St. Irregulars - Cambridge Division.

Join your fellow “partners in crime” in the historic Cambridge Performing Arts Centre for an exciting evening on Friday, November 1 as the case begins to take shape. Holmes and Watson are back in The States where they are investigating the death of a researcher of mythological animals. Do they have a Christmas ghost of a chance at solving the mystery? The evening includes desserts, coffee, and tea. Registration and seating begin at 7:30 p.m. with the start of the ‘problem’ occurring at 8:30 p.m.

The game continues on Saturday, November 2. Participants will return to the meeting place for Act II of the mystery where a hearty brunch is served. Match your theories to the local authorities and London’s unofficial consulting detective, Holmes himself. Are these the same twists and turns that you should be discovering? What are the secrets that Holmes has discovered and do they lead to your ability to solve the crime? Have you matched wits with the celebrated detective or are you a clueless wonder?

“We are so thrilled that local playwright, Anne Chlovechok, has penned a sixth murder mystery about the adventures of Sherlock and Watson. The first murder mystery in 2009 was a huge success with residents and visitors. We can’t wait to see the pair solve yet another crime!” Cambridge/Guernsey County VCB Director Debbie Robinson said.

Participants are encouraged to get into the spirit by donning Victorian attire and wandering Cambridge's picturesque streets in search of clues to solve the mystery and win the grand prize. The 86 Dickens Victorian Village scenes in Downtown Cambridge will set the tone for adventure. Participants will follow a map to sites that have certain 'pre-placed' clues.

The murder-mystery weekend will take place Nov. 1-2 in Cambridge. For ticket pricing and reservations, log on to VisitGuernseyCounty.com or call the VCB office at 800-933-5480.
