5 Must-Try Southeast Ohio Eateries

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (March 9, 2020) – One of the most talked about parts of a vacation, before and after, is the food. Southeast Ohio offers a unique blend of eateries, ranging from farm to table to taverns on a hill and everything in between. Here are five must-try restaurants in Cambridge, Ohio you'll want to stop for the next time you're in the area.

Theo's Restaurant in downtown Cambridge dishes up its famous mile-high pies year-round. Slices of lemon, chocolate, peanut butter, and cherry pie are topped so high with a tasty homemade meringue—you may not see the person across the table! But don't forget the local diner's sumptuous menu of sandwiches, salads, soups and more!

If you're looking for an exceptional burger you'll find it at The 360 Burger. Don't be fooled. This isn't your typical burger. Founded in 2017 by the Executive Chef, Steve Wagner, the restaurant's family-friendly atmosphere is casual and fun with chef-driven fast food. All of the restaurant's dishes are made with locally sourced ingredients, and the beef used is from the cattle the owners raise themselves. Juicy burgers, fresh-cut fries and hand-spun milkshakes will delight any taste bud. The restaurant is open Wednesday – Sunday from 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Inspired by the eclectic energy of downtown Cambridge, Ohio, Guernsey Kitchen offers a fresh, locally produced menu with healthy, delicious food in an urban setting. The restaurant is located within a restored 19th-century building with original tin ceilings and hard wood floors. It offers patrons a unique dining experience from the ambient decor to an inviting staff to the way it sources its food. The restaurant's fresh, scratch-made, locally sourced foods, including specialty sandwiches and hand cut fries along with pastas, salads, appetizers, and deserts are sumptuous. They also serve Roscoe Farms Coffee beverages. Guernsey Kitchen is open Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Before or after your meal, stop by McKenna's Market, right next door, and pick up a few gourmet goodies to take home.

Georgetown Tavern on the hill sits high atop a scenic ridge overlooking the city of Cambridge, Ohio. The winery is surrounded by five acres of vineyards. Family owned and operated, the tavern is a full service restaurant that offers appetizers, pastas, subs, desserts, and one-of-a-kind brick-oven pizza in addition to Georgetown Vineyards wines, popular beer brands (including local crafts brews by Southside Brewing Company), wine slushes, and sangria. Weekly musical events and specials are also featured. The tavern is open Monday - Thursday 11a.m. to 9 p.m. and Friday & Saturday 11 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. www.georgetowntavern.com

The atmosphere at Central Station Steak & Ale hooks you from the start. The restaurant's homage to trains is rustic with a modern flare. The menu ranges from lobster bisque to ribeye. And, when you slide up to the bar for a drink there is a full range of ale and other spirits. When the weather is warmer enjoy dining alfresco under a large, comfortable and covered patio.
