

Small Town Finds in Southeast Ohio

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO (September 13, 2021) – Picturesque small towns dot the landscape of southeast Ohio. They offer an escape from the never-ending busyness of life we all long to leave behind, at least for a week or more. Cambridge/Guernsey County, Ohio is the perfect, close-to-home getaway you've been looking for this year.

In Cambridge/Guernsey County you can explore Ohio's history of glassmaking, coal mining and Bigfoot spotting. Not to mention savoring made-from-scratch pies and pizzas and catching a show of epic proportions.

MUST VISIT MUSEUMS

The best places to go for Cambridge's unique past are the Guernsey County History Museum, Mosser Glass and The National Museum of Cambridge Glass. While exploring, visit the eclectic shops and restaurants of Cambridge and neighboring Byesville. Make time for local favorites like Nothing But Chocolate's famous buckeye candies, McKenna's Market gourmet Ohio foods, Kennedy's Bakery donuts, DealBusters Marketplace's home décor and Monarch Mercantile's customized home botanicals.

DIG INTO DELICIOUS

There's a simple joy in eating a meal that you didn't have to prepare yourself. Grab a seat on the patio, deck, or order to-go to savor local flavors. At Georgetown Tavern the wood-fired pizzas and Georgetown Vineyard wines are rivaled only by the panoramic views. Theo's Restaurant, a family dining tradition since 1931, is known for its extensive menu of enduring favorites and mile-high pies. 360 Burger uses local ingredients in its mouthwatering burgers, fries, and hand-spun milkshakes. This is chef-driven, high-quality food that just so happens to be served fast. The Dockside Restaurant at Seneca Lake Marina Park is a favorite for its ice cream shop, Fish Fry Fridays, barbecues on Fridays and Saturdays, and best of all it has a great view of Seneca Lake. Mr. Lee's Restaurant combines two of the best foods into a single, perfect super dish: the pizza burger. The name says it all – perfection!

LIVING LEGENDS & DRAMA

Salt Fork State Park happens to be Bigfoot Central. With several Sasquatch sightings in the area, the park now is home to the Ohio Bigfoot Conference and several other fun events throughout the season. You can sign up for Bigfoot Night Hikes or Creature Weekends where you learn how to collect evidence. In addition, you can purchase all kinds of Bigfoot merchandise in the park's gift shop that even carries Bigfoot wine!

From living legends to living drama, Guernsey County is also home to Ohio's only outdoor passion play! For more than 45 years The Living Word Outdoor Drama has been wowing audiences (current season ends Sept. 25) with its beautiful performance of the Passion. This moving two-hour performance will have you mesmerized by the detail of the costumes and the grandeur of the sets. This is truly a unique experience you can only get in Guernsey County.
