

Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra Kicks Off their 47th Season

New Concord, Ohio (November 2, 2022) Be sure to join the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra for their opening concert of the 2021-2022 season! They are excited to be performing again and invite you to join them for a spectacular concert honoring heroes on November 14, 2021 in Secrest Auditorium in downtown Zanesville, located in Southeast Ohio!

The concert, entitled Heroes: Honoring our First Responders and Veterans, is a memorial tribute to the first responders on this twentieth anniversary of 9/11, as well as our Military Veterans, as we celebrate Veteran's Day.

The orchestra will perform famous hero music, Magnificent Seven, Superman, Chariots of Fire, and much more as they join together in music to celebrate and honor our heroes!

Join them for this terrific musical tribute, Sunday, November 14, at 3:30 pm. Adult tickets are $15, $45 for a season membership, and children and always free when accompanied by an adult.

Masks are required at all times to attend this concert, proper social distanced seating will be followed for the safety of all the wonderful musicians and attendees!

See you at the Symphony!

For more information, contact the SEOSO office at (740) 826-8197 or visit SEOSO.org.

