

Terri Herron Joins the Cambridge/ Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau

Cambridge, OH (December 20, 2019) – Terri Herron has recently joined the staff of the Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau as their office manager. Executive Director, Debbie Robinson says, “Terri’s skill set and her outgoing personality make her a perfect fit for our office and Tourist Information Center.

Terri resides in Guernsey County and has a strong interest in the community. Terri was raised in New Concord, OH and is a graduate of John Glenn High School. She continued her education with Zane State Community College to achieve her Business degree. She is also a graduate of Leadership Muskingum.

Terri comes to us with a background of 18 years in management. Throughout her career, she has had many great experiences with such companies as La-Z-Boy Gallery, Good Morning Mattress and managing Secrest Auditorium for the City of Zanesville. Some of her personal accomplishments consist of starting her own Interior Design Business. This had given her the opportunity to explore and expand more in her passion with community involvement projects and working with different organizations including Zanesville Historic Association, local theatre organizations, Parks and Recreation along with beautification and restoration projects.

Terri has two children, Nikki who resides in Columbus, Ohio, and Zackrey in Zanesville Ohio. She enjoys theatre, art, music, traveling and spending time with family.

Terri says, “I’m excited to start my career as the office manager for the VCB. The opportunity to be a part of such a wonderful team and community has created a great and positive purpose for me.”

For more information on area and regional events or to meet Terri in person, contact the VCB office at 627 Wheeling Avenue, call 740-432-2022 or log on to our website VisitGuernsey.com.

#