Glasshouse with a Heart

Two Days/One Night

April 1 through October 30

Your group will enjoy learning about the importance of Victory Gardens during World War II through glass workers' eyes in 1940-1945.

Day One

10am Arrive at the National Museum of Cambridge where factory workers will greet you and explain their Victory Gardens including day to day live in Cambridge, Ohio. Each guest will receive one small memento of this interactive tour! (Photo of museum workers)

11:30am Lunch at one of our local eateries

1pm Free time to enjoy the many eclectic shops in shops in Historic Downtown Cambridge. Make sure to save room for dessert at your next stop!

2pm Make and take sundae at Roscoe Farms for the entire group. Create your own sundae and feel free to shop in this adorable coffee shop afterwards.

3pm Check into your hotel

5pm Inspired by the eclectic energy of downtown Cambridge, Guernsey Kitchen offers Ohio wines or beer sips and a savory treats. (Viticulture and breweries are a delicious and fascinating business in Ohio just as it was in the Glass House days.)

6pm Dinner in a downtown restaurant with entertainment by a local musician or performance of local live theater afterwards.
