Our sin-sational bakeries and local diners will charm you with their home cooked meals and tasty treats. With more than 50 different traditional chain restaurants and local eateries, you'll savor a taste of Guernsey County!

MILE-HIGH PIES

Theo's Restaurant in downtown Cambridge dishes up its famous mile-high pies. Slices of lemon, chocolate, peanut butter, and cherry pie are topped so high with a tasty homemade meringue—you may not see the person across the table! Dig in!

BAKE & SHAKE

The aroma of freshly baked glazed donuts, sugar cookies, cakes and other goodies at Kennedy's Bakery envelope you the moment you walk through the door. "The Original," as the locals affectionately call it, is located on Wheeling Ave. in downtown Cambridge and has been part of the community since 1925. Kennedy's Cakes and Donuts, located just a few miles from downtown, boasts 11 showcases of pastries—making it the largest display of baked goods in the state of Ohio. The shop has placed first in the U.S.A. Baking Contest. Did we mention they also have over 1 million milkshake flavors?

FAMILY STYLE

Pass the green beans, please! Francis Family Restaurant allows everyone to gather and share the best of meals, conversation and time. For breakfast, lunch and dinner, Francis' offers scrumptious home cooked meals.

GATHER 'ROUND THE TABLE

Enjoy the most spectacular view in Guernsey County at Georgetown Tavern on the Hill while you munch on homemade brick-oven pizza, subs, salads, or pasta, and sip a wide selection of sweet, semi-sweet, and dry wines, as well as craft beer and spirits.

You'll lick your fingers and lips when you try the barbeque at Cid's Smokehouse Grill. This walk up food truck offers some of the tastiest smoked brisket in town.

McKenna's Market features a deli, freshly made salads, subs and soup, local and artisan foods, and craft beer & wine from throughout Ohio. The market is located in a hip country urban setting in Historic Downtown Cambridge.

Delicious homemade American food makes Mr. Lee's Family Restaurant a quick favorite. Locally owned and operated, the menu features an eclectic mix of dishes.

The atmosphere at Central Station Steak & Ale hooks you from the start. The restaurant's homage to trains is rustic with a modern flare. The menu ranges from lobster bisque to ribeye. Slide up to a full bar for a drink of ale and other spirits.

Dine lake side at Seneca Lake's Dockside Restaurant. Patrons enjoy the scenic beauty over home-style meals and fresh baked treats.

When You Have More Time...

THE FORUM

Owned by the Theodosopoulos family, the restaurant's rich Greek heritage and famous dishes make you feel like you're one of the family. In addition to Greek dishes, favorite Italian, and American creations are available.

ORR'S DRIVE IN

Ok, if you are going to eat a deep fried foot long Coney dog, peanut butter milkshake, onion rings, pizza burger or anything else that will make your mouth water and add a few pounds, this is the BEST place to find it! Family owned and operated for years (too many to count) the quality of their food is impeccable and made to perfection.

PARKSIDE TASTY TREAT

Located near Cambridge City Park, this ice cream shop offers 24 flavors of Velvet hand-dipped flavors, including sugar free! What's the most popular item on the menu? Hand-dipped ice cream in a homemade waffle cone.

NOTHING BUT CHOCOLATE

Handcrafted in Cambridge, Nothing But Chocolate (need we say more?) is a chocolate lover's dream! You'll feel as if you've stepped into Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory.

BEAR'S DEN

Located on the Old National Road (Route 40), this restaurant features elegant dining with a rustic appeal! The restaurant's popular rotisserie ribs, pastas, local farm-raised beef and seafood are divine. Outdoor seating is available.
