

Rural Retreats in Southeast Ohio

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO (March 15, 2022) – Cambridge/Guernsey County, Ohio is the place to be this spring for a rural retreat with your friends or family. The area is home to dozens of cozy cabins perfectly situated among the rolling hills of southeast Ohio's secluded natural beauty.

Take time to enjoy the signs of spring with a getaway to Salt Fork Lodge & Cabins (just 10 minutes from downtown Cambridge) and stay in a Lakeside Chalet Cabin. Soak in a hot tub, enjoy a bonfire and then sleep in. When you finally rise you'll see beautiful Salt Fork Lake outside your windows.

Find the best of both worlds with modern amenities and outdoor fun at Seneca Point Cabins. These newly constructed timber frame cabins are nestled among 33 acres of private ground adjacent to 4,060 of Muskingum Watershed Conservatory District, but within 200 feet' of beautiful Seneca Lake.

While in the area, take time to catch a show at the Pennyroyal Opera House in the historic pike town of Fairview. Visit the place where live bluegrass happens in a quaint restored building along the Historic National Road (US 40). Professional bluegrass bands from across the U.S. entertain on Friday evenings to packed houses. Delicious home-made meals are served before each performance.

And don't forget to indulge in some handcrafted chocolate before heading home. Nothing But Chocolate (need we say more?) in Cambridge is a chocolate lover's dream! You'll feel as if you've stepped into Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory. Their most popular item is an Ohio tradition – Buckeye candies. The shop's Buckeyes have a rich creamy peanut butter center that is hand-dipped in silky milk chocolate. Each box of Buckeyes is made to order. www.NothingButChocolate.com
