Saints and Demons One Day

16 tons what do you get? Learn what Tennessee Ernie Ford knew: Coal, "the Black Diamond," was hard to mine but its impact had an effect on this region and state and still does today. From the hell of the coal mines to the fine etchings on Cambridge Glass, your group will be intrigued from beginning to end of this one day tour.

9- 10:30am- Visit the Guernsey County History Museum. See what life was like in early 20th Century Cambridge/Guernsey County. Thousands of photos have been archived depicting the hard life and times of coal miners and their families. There are also many photos of early train travel. Within the eclectic museum, experience a replica of an underground coal mine operation along with a coal mine office.

11am- City tour of historic Downtown Cambridge and time for shopping.

12noon- 1pm Lunch on own or a scheduled lunch at one of our downtown family owned restaurants.

1:15-3pm Visit the National Museum of Cambridge Glass and learn how ornate glassware was created. Mr. A. J. Bennett or workers from the Glass House will lead you on this experiential tour.

3:15pm Visit the Episcopal Church built in the English fashion for a tour, tea and scones.

5pm Dinner and Togas, Tunics and Trimmings. Learn why people dressed as they did in biblical times with a first person presentation by Living Word Outdoor Drama actress Dee Carter.

Not ready to go home? Other options to turn your one day tour into an overnight trip to continue your Saints & Demons Tour!

Choose from:

A Heisey Glass Tour or The Works Experience in Newark, Ohio (one hour drive) Glassware made by A.H. Heisey and Company has great appeal to a variety of collectors, novices and experts alike. Or visit The Works: Ohio Center for History, Art & Technology.

The Castle Tour in Marietta, Ohio (one hour drive) The focal point of Marietta's historic district, The Castle, has been the home of some of the area's most prominent and influential citizens.

The Dresden Madison Presbyterian Tour in Dresden, Ohio (one hour drive) In 1838, two churches combined and have had a continuous congregation since. The church boasts a beautiful brick façade with stained glass windows and beautiful grounds with old growth trees in a park like setting.

The St. Nicholas Catholic Church Tour in Zanesville, Ohio (30 minute drive) Father A. L. Leininger arrived in 1893 from Germany. Rather than adding another makeshift wing to the old church, Father Leininger determined to construct a new building in Italian Renaissance Style – a grand edifice to the glory of God.
