

One Day

History, Geology, Transportation, Music and Ethnic Foods

Transportation in the Ohio Country the Northwest Territory was extremely difficult. Pioneers traveled first via rivers and streams due to the dense impenetrable forests. Once settled though, their lives began and so did their story. Your storyteller for the day will uncover the layers of these stories and bring them to life.

9am Arrive in Cambridge and meet your storyteller for the day who will escort your group through Guernsey County and point out interesting sites and fascinating tales through the hills of Southeast Ohio.

11:30am-1pm Lunch. Your group can dine while enjoying the beautiful natural settings in Guernsey County at Dockside Restaurant with views of Seneca Lake or at Salt Fork Lodge & Conference Center, Ohio's largest state park. Both are motor coach friendly. Add another layer of intriguing stories with a local historian or ethnic music offered by some of the area's most entertaining musicians.

2-3:30pm Dickinson Cattle Ranch Tour- Travel the National Road, an All-American, National Scenic Byway to neighboring Belmont County. Take the interpretive Longhorn Ranch Tour that includes close up viewing of BueLingo, Texas Longhorn, and African Watusi cattle herds.

4-5pm Belmont Victorian Mansion Tour - Enjoy 26 restored and furnished rooms with the finest of the Victorian Era. Your tour guide will take you through the exquisitely appointed rooms.

End your tour here or add an overnight to experience yet more stories of the past brought to life.
