

Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra Presents their Annual Holiday Pops Concert

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (November 21, 2022) – The Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra (SEOSO) will present its traditional Holiday Pops Concert on Thursday, December 1 at 7:00 p.m. in Zanesville’s Secrest Auditorium.

In keeping with our tradition, this year’s concert features a wide variety of classic holiday favorites from Charlie Brown to the Grinch to Mannheim Steamroller’s “Stille Nacht,” as well as a guest guitar soloist in Trans-Siberian Orchestra selections. John Glenn High School’s “String Sounds” strolling string ensemble will provide the concert’s prelude music and will join the orchestra on stage for the finale number, Leroy Anderson’s “Sleigh Ride.” Brian Wagner, CEO of the Muskingum Community Foundation, will serve as the program’s guest host. Don’t miss this great show, fun for the entire family and just in time to get you right into the holiday spirit!

As our gift to the community, the concert is free and open to the public and tickets are required. They are available for pickup at sponsor locations including Muskingum County Library system, Secrest Auditorium, Zane State College and the SEOSO office.

In addition, please bring a non-perishable food donation which will be picked up by Christ’s Table to share with others in need this holiday season.

The concert will also be live broadcast on radio station Z92, available online, part of the WHIZ Media Group.
