

GUERNSEY COUNTY HISTORY MUSEUM

The home of old-fashioned 3D pictures...

... which you can view at home with our complimentary 3D glasses!

Learn about coal mines in our coal mine replica room.

Encounter chalk, ink wells, and McGuffey's Readers in our historically accurate one-room schoolhouse area.

North 8th Street Steubenville Avenue	 Guernsey County History Museum 218 N. 8th St.
West 8th Street Wheeling Avenue (Main Street)	 Guernsey County Public Library East 8th Street  Guernsey County Courthouse
Southgate Parkway	Cambridge, Ohio

Museum Hours

May through October November and December
 Tue., Thur., & Sat. 12-3 Tue., Thur., & Sat. 12-5:30 Closed January through April - Adults $5, Children $3

	How did a tiny isle in the English Channel give its name to a county in Ohio? Learn the story of an intrepid band of immigrants who landed at Baltimore and journeyed west into Ohio until they found just the right spot to settle in 1806.
---	--

What do you know about the 1962 flight of Friendship 7 and the first American astronaut to orbit the Earth? Learn the story of native son John Glenn. His pioneering flight put America back in the Space Race, headed for the Moon.
--	---

	Why did the Army create a 168-building hospital complex in Guernsey County and then abandon it just three years later? Learn how the Army built a hospital for the wounded of WWII here in the winter of 1942. When the war ended, they needed it no more.
---	--

Do you know who the first TV cowboy star was, and where he came from? Learn how local youngster William Boyd went west, took on Hollywood, became known as film star "Hopalong Cassidy," and then found even greater fame on TV.
--	--

Guernsey County History Museum

218 N. 8th Street: P.O. Box 416; Cambridge, OH 43725
 740-439-5884 | www.facebook.com/GuernseyHistory

CAMBRIDGE
GUERNSEY COUNTY
 Visitors & Convention Bureau

This rack card made possible through the support of a grant from the Cambridge/Guernsey County VCB.
www.visitguernseycounty.com • 800-933-5480
 627 Wheeling Ave., Cambridge, OH 43725