

Sherlock Holmes Murder Mystery Weekend returns to Cambridge Nov. 3 & 4

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO (September 26, 2023) – How do you follow the clues to the perfect way to kick off the holiday season? Elementary, my dear Watson.

The Sherlock Holmes Mystery Weekend returns to downtown Cambridge, Ohio November 3-4, kicking off the Dickens Victorian Village celebrations in dramatic style. This year's immersive experience, "Sherlock Holmes and the Case of the Candy Cane Codicil" is the 8th iteration of this one of a kind event written by local playwright Anne Chlovechok. Whether you're a fan of escape rooms and mysteries, Sherlock Holmes, or immersive holiday experiences, this event has you covered.

"For more than a decade Ann Chlovechok has penned eight unique Sherlock Holmes murder mysteries for our small town," Cambridge/Guernsey County VCB Director Debbie Robinson said. "It has been wildly popular from the beginning and this year will be no different. Super sleuths will be everywhere that weekend. We can't wait to see who will solve yet another crime!"

Participants are encouraged to get into the spirit by donning Victorian attire and wandering Cambridge's picturesque streets in search of clues to solve the mystery and win the grand prize. The Dickens Victorian Village scenes in Downtown Cambridge will set the tone for adventure.

Bring a friend, a magnifying glass and a heightened sense of deduction to the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center for Act I, where guests will enjoy the opportunity to meet and mingle with the playwright, snack on light bites, and begin formulating theories. Each participant will receive a gift bag filled with local chocolates and wine, a souvenir Sherlock Holmes wine glass and Cambridge Main Street Moolah that can be spent in local downtown shops.

Saturday morning brings more drama (and a hearty brunch) with Act II, followed by a whimsical afternoon chasing clues throughout downtown Cambridge before the mystery is solved after Act III Saturday evening over a satisfying assortment of desserts, coffee, teas and a cash bar. One lucky detective will even walk away with the grand prize of $250.
