

Maestra Laura Schumann Leads Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra in Captivating March 23 Performance

March 13, 2025 (New Concord, OH) – Mark your calendars and get ready for an afternoon of electrifying music as the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra returns to the stage on March 23 at 3:30 PM in the iconic Brown Chapel on the campus of Muskingum University. This special performance marks the continuation of the orchestra’s 50th anniversary celebrations and promises a thrilling blend of beloved classics and exciting surprises.

The concert will feature a dynamic program of crowd favorites from the orchestra’s past 49 seasons, celebrating the rich history of the orchestra. Here’s a sneak peek at what’s in store:

From the Silver Screen to Your Seat: Feel the excitement of James Bond with the exhilarating Music from 007.

A Broadway Dream: Relive the magic of The Greatest Showman, bringing the beauty of musicals to life.

Patriotic Spirit: Get ready to march along to the timeless Stars and Stripes Forever, bringing that summer holiday cheer.

A Mozart Mash-Up Like Never Before: A special treat from Maestra Schumann—The Mozart-Michael Morph, an unexpected fusion of Mozart’s G Minor Symphony with Michael Jackson’s iconic Thriller. You’ll have to be there to hear this wild, genre-bending musical magic!

Plus, don’t miss a heartfelt tribute to retiring Professor Dr. Harsha Abeyaratne, who will join the orchestra to perform the legendary 2nd movement of Rachmaninoff’s 2nd Piano Concerto—the same piece famously reimagined by Eric Carmen in his hit “All by Myself”.

This performance will be an unforgettable afternoon of music, laughter and reflection, making it a must-see for fans of all ages. It’s a perfect opportunity to celebrate the past and present of the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra, as well as to honor Dr. Laura’s final performance at Brown Chapel.

Tickets are available now! Don't wait—reserve your seats and be part of this landmark performance!
