General Information

What is the Visitors & Convention Bureau? How can they help you in your job?

Visitors & Convention Bureaus are not-for-profit organizations charged with representing a specific destination and helping the long-term development of communities through a travel and tourism strategy.

Visitors & Convention Bureaus are destination management organizations that bring together businesses that rely on tourism for revenue. For visitors, VCB's are like a key to the community. As an unbiased resource, VCB's can serve as a broker or an official point of contact for convention and meeting planners, tour operators and visitors. They assist planners with meeting preparation and encourage business and leisure travelers alike to visit local historic, cultural, recreational sites and more.

How To Find Us

Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau
627 Wheeling Ave., Ste. 200
740-432-2022

The Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau is located off both Interstates 70 and 77. Take exit 178 on I-70, turn North on Southgate Parkway. On I-77, take exit 46B, turn East on Rt. 40 (Wheeling Ave.) or exit 47, turn West onto St. Rt. 22. Follow the signs to the Tourist Information Center located in Historic Downtown Cambridge at 627 Wheeling Avenue.

The VCB is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m.–4 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m.–3 p.m. The Cambridge/Guernsey VCB is your go-to source for all local tourist information, offering details on must-see attractions, exciting events, dining hotspots and top-notch lodging options.

About Guernsey County, Ohio

Cambridge/Guernsey County, nestled in the scenic foothills of the Appalachian Mountains in southeastern Ohio, is just 122 miles south of Cleveland, 100 miles southwest of Pittsburgh, 50 miles west of Wheeling and 80 miles east of Columbus. The area is easily accessible via Interstate Highways 70 (East and West) and 77 (North and South) with five interchanges and one of the nation's largest cloverleafs in Cambridge. U.S. Routes 40 (East and West) and 22 (Northeast and Southwest), along with State Route 209, also connect the region. Guernsey County is home to around 40,000 residents, with 10,000 living in Cambridge, the county seat.
