Experience what it was like to work at The Cambridge Glass Company (1902 – 1958). Watch a vintage film showing the Cambridge artisans as they demonstrate the handmade glassmaking process inside the famous glasshouse. You can dress as glassworkers and hold the original tools that were used to manufacture each piece. Stroll through colorful displays featuring over 10,000 pieces of handmade Cambridge Glass. Make a pencil rubbing from an authentic etching plate once used by the company, known worldwide for quality, as a souvenir.

New for 2026 is the America 250-Ohio mural depicting the history of the Cambridge Glass Factory.

Did you know that The Cambridge Glass Company even had their own restaurant? The pie was delicious! Visit the recreation of the “much loved” restaurant and take a selfie seated with the workers enjoying their pie!

You can also travel back in time with our Time Travelers tour option and meet Lizzie and Bessie from the glasshouse addition of Cambridge as they tell stories from their neighborhood surrounding the factory.

This museum consists of 3 different exhibit areas. The first is about The National Road, America's first federally funded highway, also known as "The Main Street of America." A 136' diorama illustrates the construction of the road at various phases and shows how progress followed it. There are also many examples of transportation which would have traveled the road including an authentic Conestoga wagon, a stagecoach sleigh, a steam car and a surrey with fringe on top. Also you'll find the Zane Grey area which is a tribute to locally born western author, Zane Grey, who wrote over 80 novels some of which turned into 100 different movies. And in the center of the museum, a gallery displays beautiful examples of locally produced art and ceramic pottery. Look through this window into the past on the shore of beautiful Salt Fork Lake. This lovely Stone House has been restored to its 1840's appearance complete with a summer kitchen and existing unique root cellar. The summer kitchen, built adjacent to the main house, lessened the possibility of fire and also kept the main house cooler in the summer. The kitchen was used year round for the preparation of food as well as butchering and canning. The ox yoke on display above the fireplace was worn on oxen that hauled the sand stone to the site by the Irish masons who built the house.

Ohio's largest state park with 20,000 acres to explore. Dine in the lodge or enjoy the rugged terrain of southeastern Ohio. Four star golf course, hiking trails and an opportunity to commune with nature. Stay for an afternoon or several days at Salt Fork Lodge as you hub and spoke from here to local tourism sites.

Inside The New Eco-Discovery Center, Bigfoot will act as a character guide throughout the building, highlighting fun facts and teaching visitors how, despite having big feet, Bigfoot's environmental footprint is small. The exhibits will engage visitors in an interactive journey through Salt Fork's forest ecosystem to discover how everything in nature is connected and ends with visitors learning ways they can practice sustainability to protect these valuable connections and natural resources.

Outdoors, visitors will enjoy a patio with seating, a rain garden, meadow plantings, native trees and a trail leading through the habitats and to the lake. The center will sit approximately 2.5 miles from the park entrance.

Perched high atop the rugged terrain of rural southeast Ohio, the scenic lodge golf course at Salt Fork State Park is a destination worth taking the clubs to. With its rolling fairways and expansive greens, the 18-hole championship course will challenge even the most experienced golfer. The par-71 course spans 250 acres of forested hills, open meadows and misty valleys of Guernsey County. Measuring only 5,786 yards from the white tees, the course plays considerably longer than expected because of the numerous uphill approach shots.

Whether you're planning a corporate team building golf outing, a men's or women's league, a school tournament or a family bonding day, we can help you plan your outing including a hearty meal afterwards. Looking to have a charitable event or benefit scrambles? Our courses are ready to help you set up a wonderful outing! Catering options are available.
